Meet the Family

Bob | Linda | Tina | Jean | Louise

Robert (Bob) Belcher Jr

Bob is the main chef of the restaurant. He is a 44-year-old second generation restaurant owner, as his father owns a diner, and currently the proprietor of his eponymous burger restaurant in an as-yet-unidentified Northeastern United States shore town. His childhood has been described as "crappy," as his father discouraged play. While poor with business management, and cursed with an unlucky streak, his skills at burger cooking have been shown to be excellent, to the point where he has been referred to as a "beef artist".

Linda Belcher

Linda is Bob's wife the mother of Tina, Gene, and Louise. They have been married for about 20 years. Linda helps around the restaurant and provides background music. Because she sings a lot, I mean a lot. She has a preference for moustaches, and says Bob "made himself ugly" when he shaved it off ("Sheesh! Cab, Bob?"). Her passions include singing, dinner theater, porcelain baby figurines, Tom Selleck, nautically themed romance novels, and prenatal yoga. She is very fond of alcohol, but is known to say that "Mommy doesn't get drunk; she has fun." Linda is extroverted, has a thick New York accent, and is somewhat eccentric; she is also fond of tackling problems using unconventional methods, though she is more optimistic than bright and things sometimes go awry.

Tina

Tina is the youngest of three siblings. She generally speaks in a monotonous low voice, works part-time at the restaurant and is often the voice of reason among the Belcher children, though it is made quite clear that she has her own eccentricities that rival those of her siblings. She loves Zombies, horses and Jimmy Jr. Tina is generally soft-spoken, sweet, and mostly timid, often in contrast to her more strident siblings.

Gene

Gene Belcher is the middle child and only son of the family. Like his mother, he has a very enthusiastic attitude about almost everything; however, he closely resembles his father. He often promotes the restaurant by wearing a burger costume and using a toy megaphone to hand out samples. Gene has a variety of interests, the biggest being food and music. He occasionally demonstrates great skill in music and dreams of one day being a famous musician; he enjoys playing a Casio-type keyboard.

Louise

Louise Belcher is the youngest of the Belcher siblings. Precocious, manipulative, and aggressive (even towards adults), she is more than willing to exploit people if there is anything to be gained. She has an offbeat and dark sense of humor and picks locks as a hobby. Louise always wears her signature pink hat with bunny ears, regardless of the time of day or situation; to date, she has never been seen by the viewer without the piece of headgear.

Special Annual Events

Theatre Night

The robber has not returned! After our incident we have had several successful Dinner Theatre Nights. Thanks to Linda for directing them and the actors who volunteer every year.

Christmas Windows

Ever since we met this strange man in our storage unit, we have decorated windows the 2 weeks leading up to Christmas. More text here about the event coming soon. The starting date is December 15th.

Super Bowl Parties

Last year we had famous super bowl player, Connie Frye, and fried the party! And no he does not support Jimmy Pesto.
